NOTICE!

ISSUE 10
MAY-JUNE
1984

Welcome to the latest issue of WARNING. Since the last issue you might have noticed we've added a cover price of 50¢ (not valid in Alaska - yet.) so if you paid for this copy I thank you and I think you'll get your moneys worth. The reason for the cover price is.... I'm limited to the total amount of copies I can make available to distributors outside of Alaska. So by adding a price tag the issue will sit in the rack a few more days so people who never see it due to irregular visits to their favorite alternative music outlets might find an issue just waiting for them and the $2.50 per doz. cost to distributors will help cut down my bulk mail payments by half. Another reason is I've heard rumors of kids picking up the whole stack from the store (cuz they were free) and selling them at gigs and other people are picking them up with no real intrest except brag value "yeah I got one... Maybe I'll take two They're free anyway".

I think the 50¢ cover price will get this rag picked up by people who seriously want to read it. There I hope that covers most of the questions I'll probably get on this topic. Now if you want a copy mailed it will cost either $1.00 or 4 stamps or six issues for $5.00 I realize some of these figures don't balance out but, that's life.

Besides Warning fanzine some of the new projects happening through WARNING is 3 new compilations.

The first is a video compilation featuring Alaskan bands SKATE DEATH, ANGRY NUNS, URBAN TRIBE, STREET PUNKS, SHOCKS and featuring appearances by the SPECIMENS (minniaplois) and SUICIDAL TENDENCIES (LA) During their appearances in Alaska plus lots of good footage of the local scene. This should be available by JUNE.

The second is a compilation of live interviews done by Bill Bored featuring BUTTHOLE SURFERS, JELLO BIAFRA, CRUCIFIX, NECROS, CIRCLE JERKS AND MORE!! only $3.00 also available in JUNE.

And last but not least I've been advertising the need for comic strips to be published in a new comic book titled "NEW ARTISTS COMIX" I am proud to announce the first issue will be hot off the press in about 3 weeks. There are only 1,000 copies and the price is $1.50 pp from WARNING fanzine. "NEW ARTISTS COMIX" will feature work from many different new artists, some featured artists are Linda Crothers, Barb Wire, Leif Linder, (local talent) Steve Wright, Chuck Fiaschetti, the REET from Fairbanks and many more! Don't miss out, ORDER NOW!!!

Well that's all for now, now feel free to read the next page and then feel free to follow out that pattern until you work your way to the back cover.

Keep the Peace, bill bored

Dear Warning,

How's it going? Things are so-so over here. Nothing exciting has happened lately. We went to a all school dance recently. It was fun until a bunch of assholes wanted to fight us because we attacked more of a crowd breakdancing, than the breakdancers did. The next week end was o.k. Stellar school had a dance and Urban Tribe played. They were ok but they never play anything new, just the same old thing. After Urban Tribe played we got a unwanted surprise? Skatedeath! Oops! They weren't Skatedeath, they were Knuckle Shuffle or something like that. They were pretty good but Tom can't sing Fipper! Last nite was the Tubes concert, I didn't go. But my sister did, she doesn't know how it went cuz she & a guy named Lanny were dancing and got kicked out after the second song. I can't wait for the S.T. show. I hope it'll be cool. I got a new 45. The band is Public Disturbance. The picture on the back looked like a picture of your everyday all american punk band. But when you play it you learn something new. They aren't a band, they're a Public Disturbance!!

Later,

WARNING!

Hello, MY NAME IS BRAVER Vassellini. I AM A DRUMMER AND SINGER IN A N. CALIFORNIA POP/WAVE BAND CALLED THE U4X (GET IT?) BUT NEVER MIND THAT! I WANT TO CONGRATULATE ON YOUR ANNIVERSARY. I GET "WARNING" IN THE MAIL AND SO I READ IT. IT IS D. WITH BILL BORDS WORDS AND I LIKE THE ARTWORK. POODLE WITH A MONAUK, A MOVIE I WANTED TO SEE!

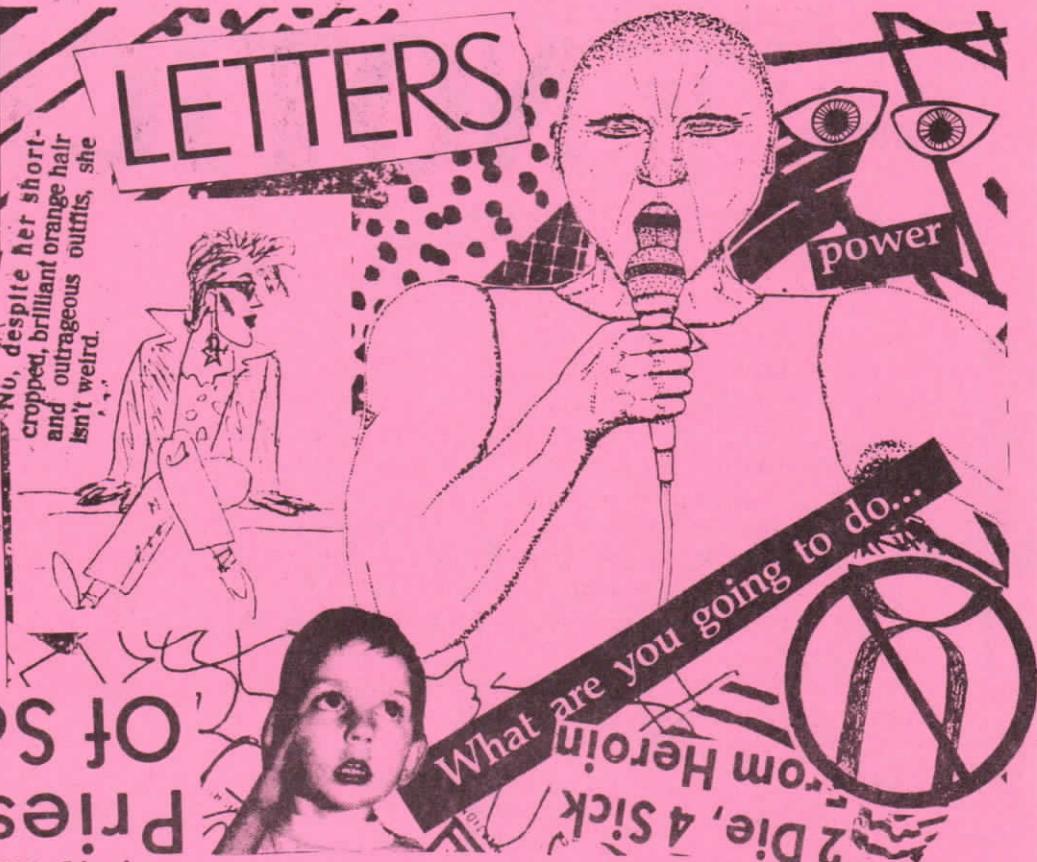

BUT NEVER MIND THAT! IM AN OLD PERSON (30) WHEN I WAS YOUNG - LETS TALK LABELS - I WAS A "HIPPY" WHICH MEANT I WAS A FRANK, NON-CONFORMIST, ANTI-ESTABLISHMENT Longhair, WHETHER OR NOT I REALLY WAS. MY DAD CALLED ME A PUNK WHEN I DIDN'T GET A SUMMER JOB OR FOR SPEAKING MY OWN MIND. THE ONLY WAVE WAS A KENNEDY WAVE OR THE ONE THE GREAT KAHUNA RODE IN THOSE SURF MOVIES. BUT NEVER MIND THAT! THE LABELS HAVE CHANGED. THE ATTITUDES OF THOSE WHO QUESTION AUTHORITY, WHO ARE REPULSED BY MEDIA PROGRAMMING OF SOCIETY'S DRESS, PEOPLE'S VALUES, HASNT. THOSE WHO FIRST DARED TO LET THEIR HAIR GROW WERE IN THE FOREFRONT OF A REBELLION. THE CAPITALIZATION UPON, AND COMMERCIALIZATION OF, THIS REBELLION AGAINST THOUGHT CONTROL, AGAINST FOLLOWING LIKE MINDLESS LEMMINGS THE FASHION OF THE WEEK THE CARTHESIAN THING, MANAGED TO DEFLATE ITS ENERGY, TO DISTORT, DIVERT AND NEUTRALIZE, BY CREATING LABELS AND ACTUALLY ABSORBING "THE ANTI-ESTABLISHMENT" MOVEMENT INTO ITSELF. WHAT DOES "FLOWER POWER" MEAN TO YOU? SURELY NOT WHAT IT WAS ORIGINALLY COINED TO MEAN. TODAY THE COUNTRY BANDS HAVE ALL THE HAIR. BUT NEVER MIND THAT!

WHO ARE THE TRUE PUNKS? WHO ARE THE TRUE HIPPIES? ARE THERE MANY OF US? ARE WE DINOSAURS OR JUST ENDANGERED SPECIES? I FEEL SAFER IN HELL THAN I DID IN PEACE BEADS AND HERBAL CURES. THERE ARE ALL KINDS OF PEOPLE: SHEEP, WOLVES, PIGS, TURKEYS. WE ARE ALL FREE TO DO ANYTHING WE WANT, THOUGH WE MAY NEVER REALIZE IT. OUR WORDS ARE ONLY AS BIG AS OUR MINDS ALLOW. IT TAKES GUTS TO STAND OUT IN THE CROWD BUT IT'S EASY BECAUSE THE SAD TRUTH IS SOCIETY/MEDIA/MONSTER IS RATHER SLOW. BUT NEVER MIND THAT! THE U4X WILL BE IN ALASKA SOMETIME THIS SUMMER. I LOOK FORWARD TO THE SCENE IN THE 2ND TO THE LAST FRONTIER.

Braver Vassellini

My name is Robert. I'm 22. Been into thrash type music for six months now. Your zine is so fucking great. It is informative, entertaining, most of all open & honest. Because I'm new in the 'scene', I get a lot of that 'punker than yoy', shit, and I'm not even trying to be punk. So, because your zine didn't carry that particular attitude, it was encouraging.

Before discovering hardcore, I was into different music almost every couple months. My favorite music however, has always been sound with good meaningful lyrics. So not much has changed. Back to your zine, keep up the work. Since involved in the scene, I've read many a zine. Most are all music, or all politics, or all jokes, etc. But yours was full and never hot aired on one particular interest. Congratulations.

I wish I would've seen an issue six months ago when I was just starting out. It was luck I ran across issue #8 when I did. Please send me issue #9 when it comes out. I'll enclose stamps for it.

Also, if you hear of any bands wanting to play Denver, or going on tour and just passing through, I have space for crashing. It's a warm place to sleep for any party in need. No phone, so just have the party in need write in advance.

Oh yeah, local bands here are Peace Corps, Bum Kon, Butcherz, Shamed Hatred, to name a few.
P.S. The band I'm in now is temporary and experimental. I'm looking for a permanent band by mid-summer, and I also want to re-locate. If you hear anything, could you let me know? Interested in thrash, I'm a vocalist. Thanks again.

DEAR WARNING,

7005 125th AVE SE
RENTON WASH.

I'VE JUST RECENTLY BEEN INTRODUCED TO THE PUNK SCENE AND I THINK IT'S GREAT. I WOULDN'T REALLY CLASSIFY MYSELF AS A PUNK ROCKER, CONSIDERING I LOOK LIKE A SO CALLED "NORMAL PERSON" AND I LISTEN TO A VARIETY OF MUSIC. I LIKE PUNK BECAUSE IT SEEMS LIKE THERE IS SUCH A POSITIVE BOND BETWEEN THE YOUNG PUNKS OF TODAY, AND THEY RESPECT EACH OTHERS VIEWPOINTS. THAT'S ONE REASON I'M GETTING INTO THE PUNK SCENE IN SEATTLE. LAST NIGHT AT THE MET, SEVERAL TIMES PEOPLE WOULD FALL TO THE FLOOR, WHILE DANCING, AND EVERYTIME THEY WERE HELPED UP BY THE CLOSEST PERSON. I THOUGHT IT WAS GREAT THAT PEOPLE COULD GO OUT AND SLAM AND HAVE A GOOD TIME WITHOUT WORRYING WHETHER THEIR LIVES WERE IN DANGER WHEN THEY HIT THE FLOOR. I THINK THE PUNK VIEWPOINTS ARE REASONABLE. I LIKE THE WAY LEASE A VAN PUT IT IN #8. IT READ "BE YOURSELF AND SAY FUCK YOU TO ALL THOSE PEOPLE WHO TRY TO PUT YOU DOWN." DO WHAT YOU WANT, UNLESS IT GOES PAST YOUR MORAL VALUES. AND IF YOU DON'T HAVE ANY MORAL VALUES I WISH YOU THE BEST OF LUCK OF FINDING SOME. JUST THOUGHT I'D DROP A LINE AND EXPRESS A "NEW PUNKERS" VIEWPOINTS. IT'S A GREAT ZINE AND I HOPE IT CONTINUES. IF ANY OF YOU OUT THERE WOULD LIKE TO FILL ME IN MORE ON THE SEATTLE SCENE, OR OTHER SCENES, DROP ME A LINE.

THANKS,

Dennis

P.S. EVEN IF IT'S TO TELL ME MY VIEWPOINTS SUCK AND I SHOULD FUCKING GET LOST, I'D LIKE TO HEAR FROM YOU. I'LL SEE YOU AT THE MET, FEB 3RD.

SLUGGLORDS

This interview was done through the mail and then pieced back together. and it wasn't easy so you better enjoy it.

Hi Polly, I am Bruno DeSmartass, guitar & vocals. We have decided to answer your questions independently, at different times. We are rather 3 different persons, even tho' John & Willy are sub-moronic assholes... Here goes...

John here- Thanks for writing- I'll try to be clear w/ not too much B.S.

This is Willy and here are my answers.....

You're known as a "Vats" band correst? Could you explain what this means to our readers?

Bruno: Oh! For chritt's sake, what a stupid question. Who cares!!!!

John: It means that we used to rehearse there and I used to live there (for these years). The Vats is an old decaying brewery in S.F. that people used to squat in. When they put in electricity and water we had to pay rent. Lots of bands (M.D.C., Condemmed to Death, Dicks, Black Humor, Angst Mindless Thugs and Witnesses to name a few) used to live and rehearse there. It got out of hand so they shut it down last January.

Your name is unique. How did you arrive at the SLUGGLORDS?

John: Ask Bruno. I wanted to call the band "Food Fight".

Bruno: Actually, surprisingly enough I came up with the name, but no one liked it, but persistence ruled in the end and it was adopted. Don't you know any SLUGS?

Have any of you played in previous bands? If so which ones?

Bruno: GOD!! I'll try to be honest. I was in BAD POSTURE for what seems ages. I was with FLIPPER on a recent tour and still jam with them. Others, RED ASPHALT, SPEED BOYS, XYPHOIDS, ERASERS (N.Y.) and so many god damn others it hurts my brain.

John: Too many to name; lessee- I toured europe with MDC, playing drums for three months (just got back) I was in JUVINILE JUSTICE, SOLDIERS OF FORTUNE, MINDLESS THUGS, LOSERZ and I'm still in HELLATIONS - all S.F. bands.

Willy: I'm a piano player stuck in a (musically punk) band!!! and loving every minute of it!!!

Do most of your gigs happen in the S.F. area?

Bruno: NO, sometimes they don't happen sometimes they just exist.

John: Most of them happen at night, indoors, on weekends or weekdays in California or wherever.....

"TRAILS OF SLIME" is your debut LP. Are you happy with the response?

Bruno: Well, FUCK YEAH, WHAT AM I SUPPOSED TO SAY. I'M ACTUALLY REALLY, REALLY HAPPY.

John: Yeah but we are bored with it so we're going to do another one.

Willy: Yep.

I noticed both Bruno and John designed the reverse jacket design. are you artists as well?

John: We can draw does that make us artists?

Willy: I'm not an artist - John and Steve is...

, Bruno: YES! What do you think? That being an artist is some sacred or mystically enchanted endeavour that mere musicians cannot handle!! All people are artists!! Only some are better than others.

Getting back to the LP for a minute, You have a sarcastic tone to the lyrics. Are you poking fun at life's silly rules and the petty system?

John: How can we help but be sarcastic??? I like to sit back and observe human behaviour-Check out all cretonic primates acting all high and mighty - wearing cloths, driving cars and getting all worked up over their petty little trips, let's face it-we're all a bunch of smiling baboons - it's just that some baboons think they're better than others.

Willy: First of all it's an EP- I never noticed noticed the sarcastic tone to the lyrics, I'm still thinking about that question.

Bruno: No we are not poking fun at life's "Silly Rules" we are a fucking serious band. If we did not have "Silly Rules" we would not know what to do!!

Which of you writes the majority of the lyrics? Or is it a group effort?

Bruno: Me and Willy have til now written all the lyrics. But that doesn't mean that that is the norm.

John: We stole them from Shakespeare

Willy: I write lyrics-it's written from experience, like for examples. Day to day living and work for it.

Your band was formed in early 1983. what do you want the future to hold for your music?

Bruno: I have found that hoping or expecting the future to do anything but make the sun rise and the phone bill to arrive in the mail is pointless. Our music, if you like it, is here now. The future is formed from the present. The present is a result of the past. The past is soon long forgotten future. LIFE is boring.

Willy: The future is you. HELP!

John: We been around for a year now and I'm relieved to hear that there might be a future. Maybe we'll hitch-hike to Anchorage.

Do you guys have any stock in American SLUG FARMS?

Willy: No!!!

John: I am Against the callous and inhumane slaughter of innocent slugs just so rich people can flaunt their slug-fur clothes and slug jewelry.

Bruno: I have a Slug farm in my back yard in S.F.

What was the main reason ing behind forming your band?

John: Have fun-Be cool-get attention-get free drinks-etc. You know the usual reasons.

Bruno: I don't know. I really don't know. Some irresistible force, Some mono-maniacal drive or a little lost demon in my fingers.

Willy: I think were just friends trying to challenge each others abilities musically!!

Are you involved in the San Francisco scene? How do you feel about the punk movement as a whole & the direction it's taken?

Willy: You'll like John's answer better than mine.....

John: Over the years we have made the S.F. scene what it is!! I think "punks" are like sheep. Just like anyone who categorizes themselves under a label. The "Movement" was just a spontaneous rejection of big-money pop music. So all these crazed individuals started making their own noise. It happened to "Jazz" type music in the early 50's. I mean- even Beethoven was considered a "punk" - everybody walked out when he first performed his stuff.

Bruno: I'm very involved with the scene in S.F. I do not feel, as many people do, that there is a "Punk Movement", per se. I see a lot of people in "Punk" bands, with "punk" lines, and "punk" cloths, and "punk" attitudes. If this is a movement, than I am stymied. I think you should give more thought to the wording of your questions. Certain aspects of the so-called "punk movement", are constructive. Because they encourage people to try to find alternative modes of living and making music and at least questioning the powers that be.... but go to any punk show, and watch the "punk movement" at work.

What really excites you?

Bruno: NONE OF YOUR FUCKING BUSINESS! John: Reading about myself in magazines.

Willy: You excite me thoroughly.

Do you guys plan on making a video with slugs?

John: Naw - they fry and sizzle under the lights.

Bruno: It's a thought. Slugs are hard to train, for that matter, they are rather sluggish.

Willy: We have no money to do a video--unless you wanna give us some When you have free time on your hands, what do you do with your hands?

Bruno: I make tapestries and build custom shotguns for skeet shooting.

Willy: Twiddle ivory keys.

John: I like to eat, sleep, wake-up, drive, talk, listen, smile, fuck, make noise, sit, stand, walk, eat some more, drink, fart, write, read and be semi-ignorant -- not necessarily in that order.

It's obvious that you're artists, how many other forms of art do you express yourselves through, apart from your music?

John: We're Fartists. I express myself through my cynicism and I like to build formula dragsters out of shopping carts. I also like to take massive doses of hallucinogenics and hang around in cemetaries.

Willy: I'm not an artist. Apart from my music I would like to act in a play or a film.

Bruno: EATING, FUCKING, DRIVING, SPEAKING, FARTING, WRITING, FIGHTING, BITING and HI-PERFORMANCE TUNE-UPS.

Do you have any personal philosophies you'd like to share with us?

Willy: Just a thought- What if you never had to sleep 1/3 of your life away, how much more could you accomplish. That is what have been doing lately?

John: Duh...huh?

Bruno: I have a great deal of personal philosophy to share with you. It probably best could be expressed by saying that it could not be expressed on a white sheet of paper with little lines of black ink. That is a sizeable hunk of my personal Philosophy. Chew on that sucker.

Is there anything you can't live with?

Bruno: STUPIDITY!

Willy: Boredom.

John: I don't say it-do it! I could say "live to live up to play soon". We welcome any comments.

ANCHORAGE ALASKA

LOUD & NUNS

What can I say? The scene in Anchorage is budding like the leaves of spring. The sun is in the sky and the days are up to about 15 hours a day. But all in all the Alaskan Hardcore/punk scene is still in it's "let's get-it-together" stage of growth and who knows how long that will last. I think basically it's a lack of interest to do nothing else but exsist. You just gotta learn to do things by yourself.

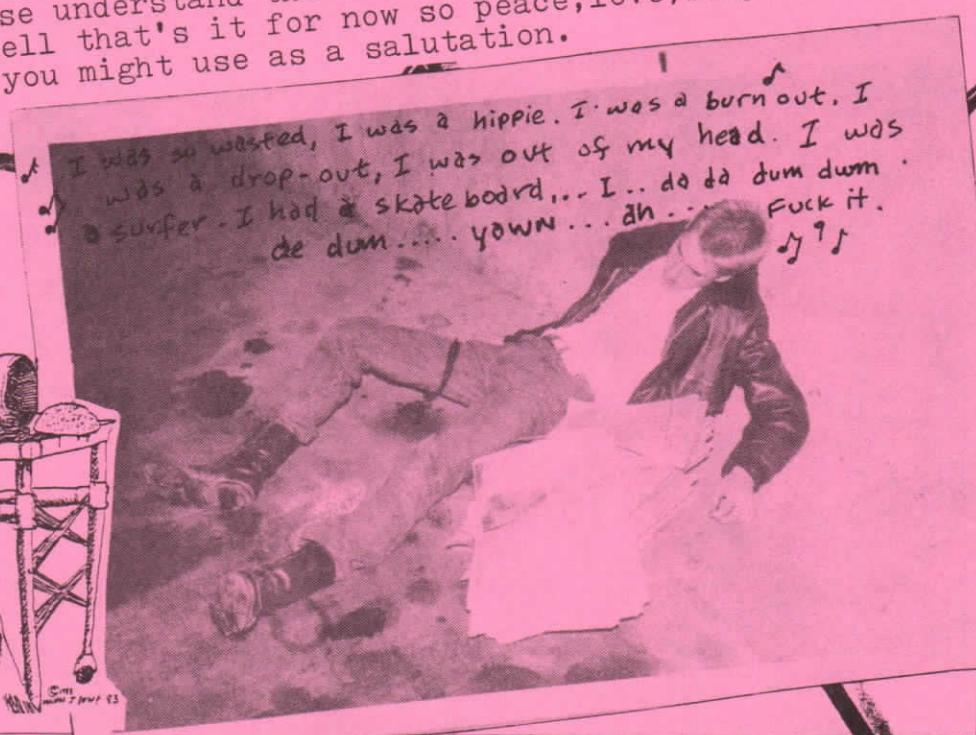

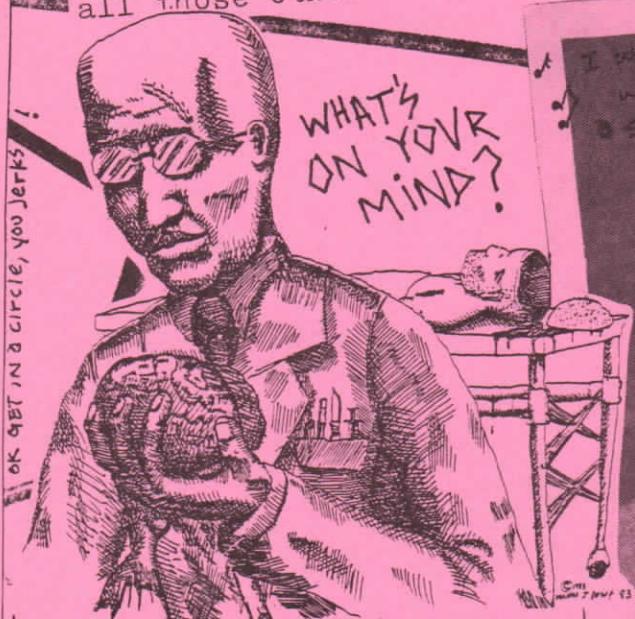

Getting back to this report....o'kay, Urban Tribe recently played at Club Metro (4-19-84). They do a lot of old Clash and Ramones covers. They have some good originals which I've heard they've been working on in the studio so we'll see what comes of it. Angry NUNs are still alive and well only they haven't been playing much in the past few months because only one member lives in Alaska full time. Drummer, Dan cross and guitar player Dale Bivins will be back in town for summer vacation so look for some Angry gigs sometimes after June 1st. Skate Death recently lost thier drummer Jason to the S.F. based band Verbal Abuse and had to use a substitute drummer to open for the Suicidal Tendencies concert put on in Anchorage on April 27th and from what I hear vocalist, Mike will be moving back to Texas again sometime in late May. Oh well so much for Anchorage's first Hardcore band. Don't look for the Shocks this season they won't be playing in Alaska, they're plans are to play gigs somewhere on the West coast (good luck guys).

The most important thing to happen recently would have to be the WARNING Concert featuring Suicidal Tendencies (see centerfold). The gap has finally been bridged between Alaska and the Lower 48. I plan to bring more bands on a very regular basis so watch for your favorite band and drop us a line and tell who you'd like to see.

If your band wants to play in Alaska contact us at WARNING and we'll see what we can do. Please understand the situation is very unusual and the expense is very high. Well that's it for now so peace, love, stay coll and all those other things you might use as a salutation.

"OK GET IN A CIRCLE, YOU JERKS!"

WHAT'S ON YOUR MIND?

bill bored

Well Anchorage, I'm leaving, in fact, by the time you read this, I will be in Seattle, learning something about the real world. I'm leaving you with nothing but utter disgust, something akin to hatred. For the fascist high-school kids who tried to gang up on me. To their elders, who supported and even helped them in demoralizing me in ways only those who have been there can appreciate.

Those of you who belittled yourselves trying to defeat me, I sincerely wish that your small minds and archaic attitudes might be able to grow with this state, for it is a great state, with unbelievable but reachable potential. I would like to see believers in freedom allowed to run the governmental power of this land, and not 'Hitler Youth'.

Yet, even stronger than all this negativeness, is my will, which still searches for a truly free state. State of country, state of boundary, or even just a state of mind.

One step beyond my will, is my hope. Hope that my friends won't have to go through what I have, hope that people will cease making others hate. Hope for a future... which is better.

To those who don't know me,
New Wave Dave

To my friends,
a thought provoker,

Dave Watkins

Dear Bill Bored & the Gang,

The little listing you gave my fanzine Jersey Beat has gotten such a great response from the readers in Alaska! I would like to mention two small things though.

Most of the letters I have received (and there have been almost 20 responses!) have been letters asking to receive a copy of my 'zine. That's great - I welcome new readers - but when writing a fanzine, you should always enclose at least some stamps, or a little money. I usually charge $1 for back issues to defray postage and printing costs (rule of thumb #2: Most fanzines lose money and need every dime and nickel) but I've been mailing free copies to Alaska for several weeks now. I really can't afford to continue, though.

The second misconception I'd like to clear up is what Jersey Beat is about. The issue I sent to Warning which you reviewed was a theme issue on our (NJ and NY's) new neo-psychadelic and mod scene. But Jersey Beat writes about all kinds of new music - hardcore, pop, rockabilly, reggae, etc. Other theme issues have addressed the Hoboken pop scene, the New Brunswick, NJ scene (home of Rutgers University and about 40 bands!), and we will soon be doing a Hardcore Issue, and would welcome hearing from the bands in the great punk scene from Alaska. Records, tapes, photos, presskits, flyers, spare change, whatever... Please send it along!

Thanks for letting me clear these things up. You've got a great mag and what looks like a great scene up there in the Great White North, keep it going!

JERSEY BEAT

AND SO I FINALLY GET AROUND TO WRITING TO WARNING. I'D LIKE TO BEGIN WITH MANY WORDS OF THANKS. I REMEMBER WHEN I FIRST HAPPENED UPON A COPY HERE IN SEATTLE, ON THE FLOOR OF A RECORD SHOP. LORD KNOWS I SPEND A GOOD THIRD OF MY TIME IN RECORD OUTLETS OF ALL KINDS. I WAS DRAWN TO IT IMMEDIATELY. IT DID NOT GATHER DUST ON MY DESK AS OTHER MATERIAL CAN. I DON'T MEAN TO SAY THAT THE REASON FOR THIS IS THE PROFESSIONAL STYLE YOU CREATE, OR THE AMOUNTS OF INFORMATION THAT YOU INCLUDE, BUT MORE FOR THE COMMITMENT YOU POUR INTO IT. I CAN IMAGINE THE WORK AND THE TIME SPENT PUTTING IT TOGETHER. I KNOW THE DEMANDS SUCH AN INVESTMENT OF TIME MAKE ON A PERSON'S PRIVATE LIFE. SO I'D LIKE TO THANK YOU ALL FOR TAKING THE TIME TO SPEAK YOUR MIND, TO BE TRULY INVOLVED IN THE LIFESTYLE YOU ARE SUPPOSED TO REPRESENT. THERE ARE AS MANY WAYS TO DESCRIBE THAT AS THERE ARE PEOPLE IN YOUR "SCENE," SO DON'T THINK I'M LABELING YOU ALREADY, IT'S JUST THAT SO MANY PEOPLE WHO CONSIDER THEMSELVES OUTSIDE OF THE NORM ARE ALL TOO READY TO BE ASSIMILATED. IT'S REALLY AN INSIDIOUS SITUATION. I HAVE GREAT HOPE THAT YOU WON'T LET THAT HAPPEN TO WARNING. YOU ARE AN INSPIRATION AND A SYMBOL FOR ANYONE WHO THINKS THEY CAN'T MAKE TIME TO ACTIVATE THEIR DREAMS. PEOPLE SHOULD NOT BE AFRAID TO STICK THEIR NECKS OUT, TO TAKE THE STEP THAT SETS THEM APART FROM THOSE WHO FOLLOW, FROM THOSE WHO TAKE AND NEVER GIVE. I THINK IT WOULD BE TOTALLY WILD IF EVERYONE WERE GIVING. IF WE WERE ALL AS INVOLVED, AS ACTIVE AS THOSE WHO SUPPORT AND CREATE, THE MOMENTUM WOULD BEGIN REAL CHANGE.

KEEP WARNING WORKING AND THANKS

Billski.

Santa ain't comin' to town
no more.

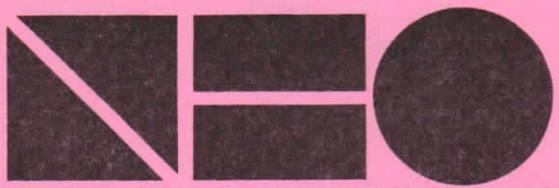

Santa was walking down the street until he got to the street corner, he stopped waiting for the light to turn green so he could walk. It turned green and he continued to walk. As he was walking he could see mass street people lying on the ground passed out. As the sun started to rise more and more people started to get up or go back for work. He kept walking until he came to some steps, looked up them and then started to go up. When he got to the top there were some doors, he walked up to them, opened them and walked right in. There where many small lines of people which were getting larger. He got in line, waited awhile, finally reaching the front of the line, he looked down at a small fat person, with black winter sun glasses. The small fat man asked Santa for I.D. Santa gave him big I.D. then the small fat handed Santa his unimprint check.

NEW FRONTIER SPORTS

the FANG interview

Who's in FANG, plays what, and how old are each of you & where are you from?

We are;

TOM FLYNN, 22 yrs. old, guitar, originally from Connecticut.
SAMMYTOWN MCBRIDE, 18 yrs. old, singer, from Berkeley.
CHRIS WILSON, 22 yrs. old, bass guitar, from Berkeley.
TIM STILETTO, 21 yrs. old, drums, from Berkeley.

How long has FANG been together?

We've been together for 2 yrs. Originally (on Landshark EP and on the Not So Quiet cut) our drummer was Joel Fox, but he was replaced by Tim because of some personality disagreements.

What do you do besides play/sing in FANG? (Anyone have a job?)

None of us have (or desire, obviously) outside jobs.

How do your families react towards your lifestyles & the music you listen to/play?

None of our parents are morally critical of playing punk rock, but none of them are very confident of our success.

Any musical influences?

We all like shitty music!

Any other releases besides the song "Fun with Acid" on "All's Quiet On The Western Front" and "Landshark"?

Isn't that enough?

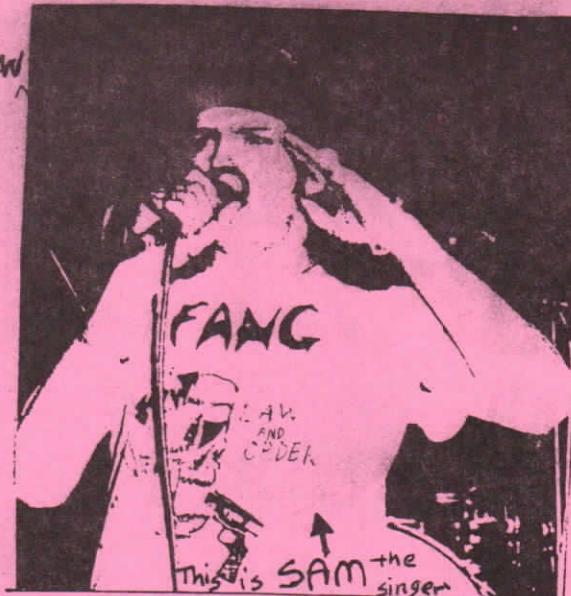

What's going to be happening with the band in the future? (I hear you're hoping to tour this summer & have a new release on the way)

Touring, a new album, and two compilations (Rat Music For Rat People #2, Life Is A Joke). Buy them all and you can be our friends.

What did 'you all' think of Seattle-the town/people/scene/the Met?

Seattle was very rockin' as far as we could tell (we were only there one night).

Are there big differences between the 'scene' in Seattle, and the 'scene' in Berkeley or L.A. or S.F.? (A person I talked to from Ca. said our scene was bad because when he went to shows at home (L.A. or S.F.) you felt scared (& that's suppose to have been a pro-point) whereas here we're too 'nice').

As I said before, we were only there one night. It seemed somewhat the same as down in Berkeley except that we saw less people.

What do you think of 'Straight Edge'? (Ian coined it, Minor Threat played it & some people decided that not to be taking drugs, drinking or fucking around or smoking was for them.)

We all take drugs but if people don't want to take drugs that's ok with me.

What do any of you think of the concepts of 'Anarchy' & 'Unity'? - there are people calling for each. Do they know what they're asking for; and could there be a 'personal anarchy' instead of asking for chaos where there couldn't be any unity whatsoever? (and if there is 'unity', what are we 'unified' for or against?...)

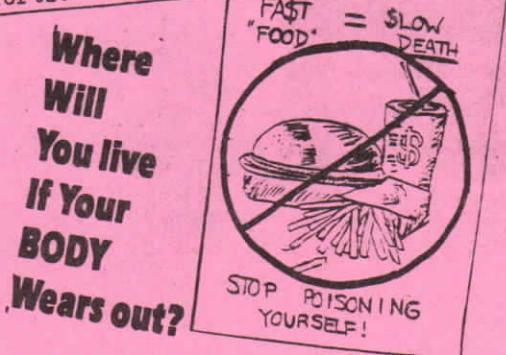

I'm against both, Sam is for unity but against anarchy, and Tim & Chris I'm not sure about.

Think FANG will ever play in Alaska?

If the money is right.

This interview was done by our Seattle correspondent, Lori Laughren, "FANG'S" guitar player did a solo interview for the band. Where the rest of them were no one knows... Thanx Lori for your efforts.

A NOTE TO ►

WOMEN PUNKS

(AND MEN IF YOU

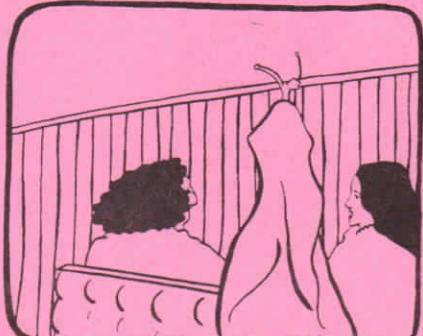

WANT to LISTEN)

Quit screaming about equality if you don't mean it. You say you want to leave behind your parents outdated values, but is that what you are doing? How equal are you if all you are is a punk groupie who gets in cat fights over Joe Schmohawk whose got the gnarlist hair, the hottest spikes, and the most 'anti' attitude? By these actions you are reducing punk to fashion, and we all know fashion doesn't cut it. By these actions you are selling yourself short; you are saying that you are a nobody unless you're Joe Schmohawk's girlfriend for the moment (you know like your mom is Mrs. so and so). And by these actions you are encouraging men to treat you as second-class humans. Maybe if you quit turning guys into 'punk idols' they'll quit acting like them. Leave groupies and idols to the rockers. I think it is not a mere coincidence that the ERA and punk are almost dead. So get off your ass. Women won't get equality until they demand it and deserve it. Don't deny that you are a sexual being; assert that you are much more. Listen to CRASS's album, 'Penis Envy' and get angry. Throw darts at a Phyllis Schafley poster and carry your weight in your scene. Join a band. There are lots of girls in bands but there should be more. Try paying your way on dates. If Mr. Schmohawk won't let you, he's got a problem; if you don't want to then, you've got a problem (or no money). Remember, sexual equality will benefit women and men (probably the scene too,).)

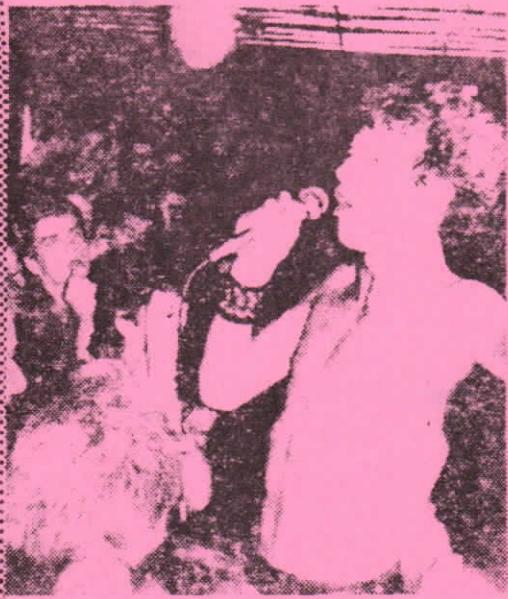

Sincerely,
Dru Blood

SKANDAL OF DEZERTER
...wows the punks in Warsaw

Young Poles turn to punk

WARSAW (AP) — As a crowd of young punks brawled on the dance floor, the lead singer for Dezerter — the deserter — screamed out an anthem to what he called Poland's "miscalibrated generation. No goals, no future, no hope, no joy."

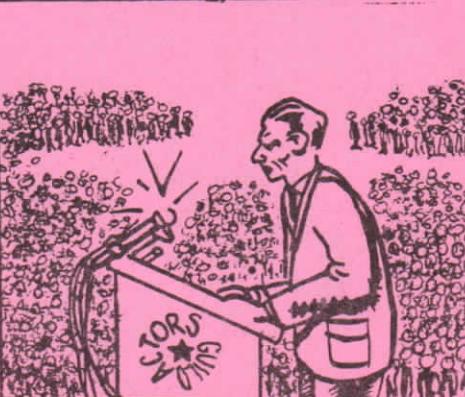

The singer hurled stacks of government and Communist party newspapers into the crowd of 200, while shrieking the word "propaganda." The title of the song was News.

The teenagers shredded the papers and lunged at each other with fists, feet, legs, and bodies in a desperate frenzy resembling a fight more than a dance.

The Polish punk rock movement is small — several thousand, say long-time observers of the Polish musical scene — and typifies the lag in popular culture between Western and Eastern Europe. But it reflects the disorientation of many Polish youth.

"I like punk because it's the only music which lets us get our aggressions out," said one 15-year-old fan, wearing a studded leather jacket and cropped blond hair that he stood on end by dousing in sugar-saturated water.

The punk wardrobe is hard to find in Poland, where clothes of all kinds are scarce, he said, grinning, "but we steal them."

While looking to the West for musical and other cultural values, Polish teenagers feel themselves firmly in the political grip of the Soviet bloc.

Poland's communist authorities barely tolerate punk but see it as a "safety valve" for the country's disaffected youth, says one sociologist

TIMES CONFUSING

Recent times have been confusing for Polish teenagers who first lived through the heady upheaval led by the now-outlawed Solidarity labor federation, then endured 19 months of martial law.

Now they face an economic crisis which many say will confine them to frustrating jobs and deny them a house of their own until they reach middle age.

"Why work if you have to wait 20 years for an apartment?" asks 19-year-old Skandal, lead singer for Dezerter and a vocation school dropout who refuses to give his real name.

Jerzy Kordowicz, a disc-jockey for state-run Polish radio, said in a recent interview: "Polish punk is a social phenomenon rather than a musical one. It is the spontaneous protest of a generation, not only in political matters, but in cultural ones as well."

State radio which regularly features Western rock bands, rarely broadcasts Polish punk, Kordowicz says, because "the lyrics of punk songs don't deserve to be played over the radio."

Government censorship blocks most Polish punk from the airwaves and bans some songs from concerts. Last year Dezerter was called SS-20, after the new generation of Soviet nuclear missiles, but dropped the name after authorities refused to print a poster for the group. The group renamed itself Dezerter, a controversial name in martial law Poland.

"Punk here is just like anywhere," says Dezerter manager Tomasz Wisniewski. "Punks just don't respect the authorities."

"But playing punk here is more difficult because of the censor and because it is hard to get money and hard to buy instruments."

On the radio, KUAC fm, the College run station (public service) has a program called Oscillations from 10:15 pm til 1:30 am. Five nights a week they play "Progressive" music, with lots of punk/wave (they even played a whole side of a D.K.'s Album).

On wednesday's starting at 10:30 KAYY does "Night Moves". An album cuts program sponsored by CO-OP Records. They play punk, wave, etc (lots of SKA!!).

RECORDS STORES:

We have two real good ones. CO-OP on Airport Rd. has lots of punk and import ep's lp's etc. In the past they've stocked Throbbing Gristle, Black Flag, Circle Jerk D.K.'S and even Butthole Surfers to name but a few.

The Comic Shop on Noble Street downtown also carries lots of "Alternative" Music titles. They also have a big selection of used records and tapes which you can get cheap! Plus they've got the largest selection of new and dated comic books in the entire state.

Both of these joints will do special orders and carry WARNING fanzine (hey, that's important right?).

TAM

The following is a paid political announcement.

LISTEN TO THIS.

"Unbelievable".

That was the last thing Fire Chief Ed Whelan said That October night.

It was also the last live performance of Split Skull, the only band bared from 36 states and CBGB's. The only band to fire off live rounds of shotgun shells in their cover version of "That's Entertainment"! The only band to have cracked a water main and shattered car windshields 16 blocks away during their only love ballad, titled, "My Spleen Has Healed Since You've Been Convicted". They were terrifying. They were great.

The origins of Split Skull are a little lazy. Lead singer Syringe was thrown out of an all boys school in 1979. She is 27. Guitarist Mamba was never convicted on a rash of car thefts in his home town of Lubbock, Texas. He plays a 1960 Electrachord twelve string, all bass, that has been modified slightly to accomodate a Chevy Impala gear linkage as a wah-wah bar. The eccentric in the group is Wally a former professional alligator wrestler turned drummer, whose legendary $3\frac{1}{2}$ hour drum solo on a sick burro in Chihuahua made the front page of the Mexican Daily "Independista" three days running.

The response was typical for Split Skull. Syringe had nodded off while piercing her cheek, Mamba was searching through the pockets of the barely breathing and Wally somehow tangled himself in the revolving smoke fan. Markus took this for a yes, and loaded them into the van. Boston would never be the same.

Next week Split Skull discovers amplifiers and visits Fanveil Hall.

T.S.

SKATE SEASON (again)

Summer fever is in the air and skateboard season is here, street skaters are out in waves ready to attack any challenges or any object that can be grinded upon or slashed off of. Street skating has always been popular and this year I feel more skaters (new ones) will feel the freedom of street style. Hopefully during the summer a small street ramp will be built for all skaters from beginner to expert. This ramp will not have vertical terrain thus being a fun ramp for new riders who want to progress and experience the weightless feel of ramp riding. Look for it this summer around town.

Also the local skate ramps will be set up soon (Frank's 1/2 pipe is already being ripped but needs wood donations for a new drop-in platform and an extention for the taller vertical end.) for one who craves for vertical and getting orbital above the tall walls. The "Tital Wave" has found a new home and will probably be ready to rip by the end of May just keep your ears open.

Last years Alaska State Fair demonstration went very well with great weather and super crowd reaction. Although the enthusiasm in the local skaters was lacking. The two skaters Jim Kowalski and Karl Augestad were paid respectable for their professional performance. This year there won't be a demonstration at the fair since skater response is down when it comes to reliable and professional skateboarding.

This summer there will be a new outlet for skateboard gear, which I feel will help promote interest in local skateboarding. The new company is called NEW FRONTIER SPORTS, a small yet growing copany which started selling snowboards a little over a year ago with great success. Rick and Bonna Malone the owners have just returned from the world Championship SnowBoard Competition (Read about it on page 29) and are looking forward to jumping into the sale of skateboard gear (New wheels trucks and decks arrived May 1). Look for their ad in WARNING.

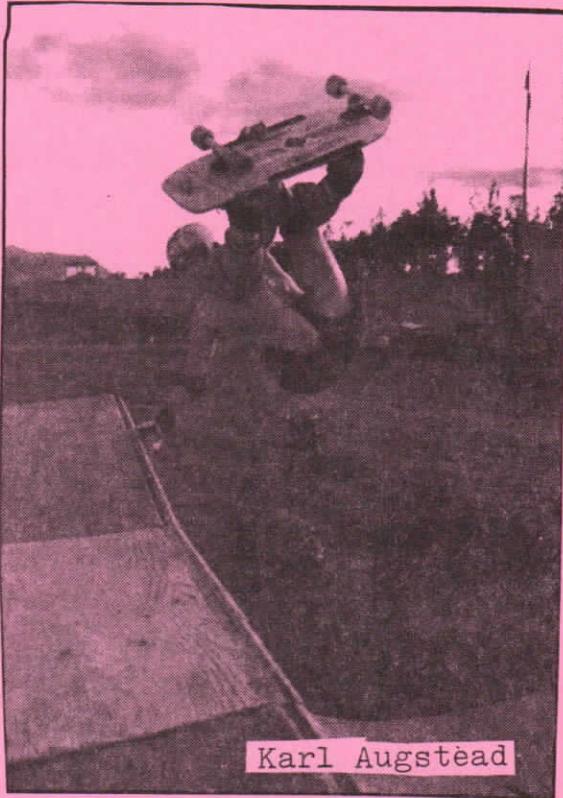

I feel with this new source of skateboard equipment, skateboarding will grow in popularity just like snowboarding did last winter. Hopefully new skate terrain will pop up around town and the fun of skateboarding will return.

Keep skating and I hope to hear wheels ripping around town this year

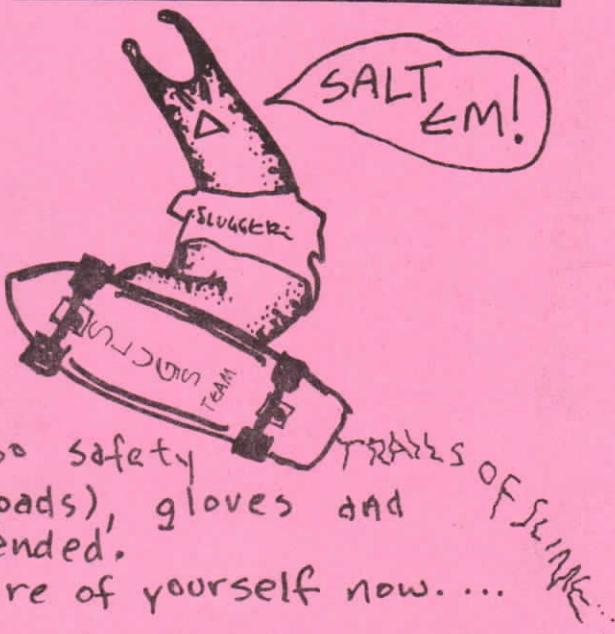

KARL AUGESTAD

FRANK'S RAMP is SKATEable daily from 1 pm - 8pm. You must have a release form signed and on file or you can not ride. (this is policy of most of the ramp owners) also safety equipment required ie. pads (at least knee pads), gloves and shoes. Helmet is optional but recommended. SKATE TOUGH, SKATE HARD but take care of yourself now.... GO FOR IT!!

LIVE IN ALASKA

Photos & story: Bill Bored

When I first learned that we were coming to Alaska I didn't know what to expect. In fact I'm a little embarrassed to say what I did expect. (slogans, etc.) Even when I was coming in on the plane, Alaska didn't look like much. But once I stepped off the plane and was greeted by the nicest people I'd ever met, I knew there was something special and different about Anchorage. I've never had so much fun or treated this well anywhere else.

I can't believe how much trouble everyone gone through to make us comfortable and show us around. We've gone to the zoo, had a huge picnic, and went tubing in the snow. I don't even do that at home. Especially tubing. Oh and I almost forgot. We played two of the most significant shows ever in our career on Friday April 27th where the audience made us feel so welcomed that we just wanted to keep on playing forever. Well I just wanna say I love it here in Anchorage and I want to come back as soon as possible.

John Nelson

Alaska? Alaska?? Alaska! Well where do ya start, I must admit I didn't know what to expect. Would this just be another place we played a gig? Just another town we passed thru? Just another day in the life of Suicidal? Hell no! Alaska! Alaska! Alaska! Starting from the time we arrived at the airport with the welcoming committee waiting for us I know this was gonna be different. Well two gigs, a barbecue, party, other fun packed adventurous times, I can honestly say this has been an experience I'll look back on for along time with pleasure. I found that Alaska not only is a very beautiful state but also has a cool scene that will only get bigger & better.

Lastly I'd like to thank all the people that have helped make this possible, & all those people that have been so friendly & made us feel right at home. I can't mention everyone's name but special thanks to John, Paul, Paul, & Jim & of course Bill Bored & Polly Vinyl, who have been absolutely fantastic to us, & have put up with a lot & have been greatly inconvenienced by our stay here. Alaska! Alaska!! Alaska!!! Thankx, we've had a great time

Upon being asked to submit an essay on my adventures in Alaska for the latest issue of "Warning" I didn't know where to start! So I'll start with the kindness and hospitality we've received the past week; from borrowing bass cabinets to skull shaped cakes to Vitamin C, the kindest of people all with one same devotion to hardcore & Alaska about the scene in comparison to the lower 48; and it does compare. Punk is basically the same around the country, the size of your scene all rides on the size of your city. Big city - lots of suburbs - lots of punk who all differ can cause mayhem at a gig. Where as in Alaska you have a growing scene of well mannered punk who want there scene to work for them & be happening! They deserve you selves! Your lucky you have devoted hardcore here! Special thanks go out to: All the punkin Anchorage SKATE DEATH - FRANK, JOHN, PAUL, AND FOR THE ALLOF IT DILL DILLO & POLLY VINYL THANKS AMES SMITH - SUICIDAL PUNK-X

Well it happened... History was made in ALASKA on April 27th 1984 at a place known as the Carpenters Hall. California based band SUICIDAL TENDENCIES played two shows to wild and enthusiastic crowds. Except for a $$ loss due to high overhead this show this show would have to be one of the most successful and historical events to take place in ALASKA. The opening band was the local band SKATE DEATH, who also did a great job (due to lack of space and time we will do a separate write up S.D. in the next issue). Instead of a review I asked the boyz to write something about their visit. If you want to know more about this gig send S.A.S.E for copies of local press releases.

Special thanks for all your help to: JIZ, SGT. ROCK and POLLY VINYL.

Dear Alaskians

This trip we made up here was very exciting & special, I should know cause it was my first time in an airplane. Bill Board & Whiting Fansine gave us business pleasure like surrounding, I'll always remember. The people I met up here were all proud to be a part of Alaska, I guess cause a lot of them got to watch Anchorage grow to a very special place.

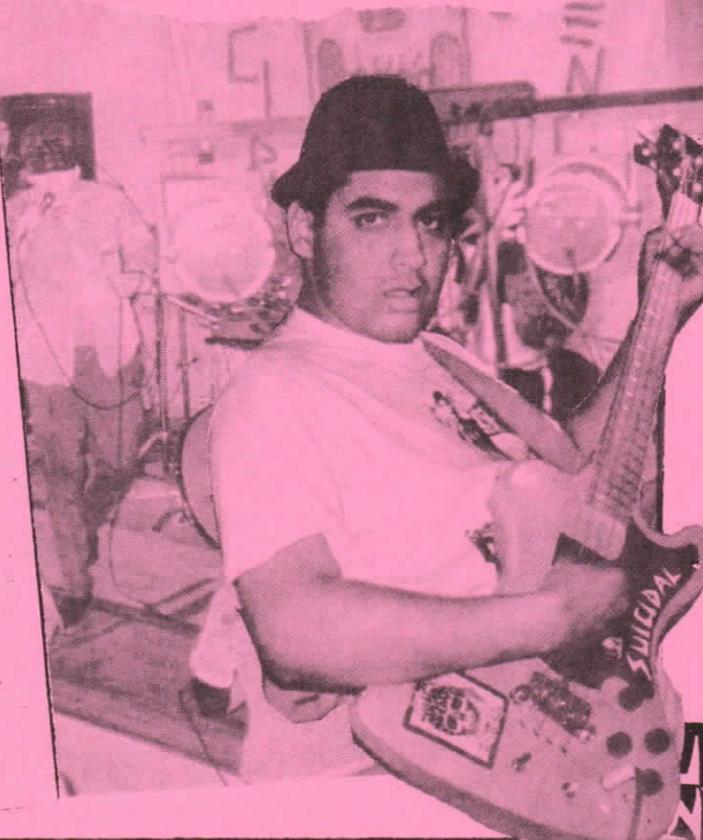

Me & the boys enjoyed your zoo, picnicking, skating, tubing, sight seeing, caribou, moose meets & I need not to mention what Whiting Fansine has done for us & Anchorage & the movement towards alternative music (new metal, punk etc.) & its beginning, & with the support of the people, Whiting Fansine & Anchorage Alaska can open its doors to bring in more great bands.

I thank you very much

fanzines create a communication network that brings punks and their music together to share with others who may be interested. fanzines are a fantastic way to communicate with people from all over the world or at least keep up with scenes in different cities or states you might have an interest in. most fanzines have band interviews, record reviews some deal totally in their local scene, others in comics, artwork, poetry and some are just plain trashy that's the beauty of it all, you just do your own thing and if others don't like it they can do their own.

the underground/alternative music scene moves fast bands are born and die, sometimes before they even press vinyl. to keep up the pace you really have got to keep in touch by keeping informed.

serious artists, musicians and writers can be inspirational and motivational, not as heroes or leaders but as individuals creating an awareness of views and opinions outside of your own personal realm of thinking.

I've compiled a list of the most recent fanzine/magazines we've received since last issue. now it's up to you.....go for it!!!!

GBH "City Baby's Revenge"

This is GBH's follow up to "City Baby Attacked by Rats"; and it's real good, believe me! 13 hot tunes and one of questionable quality. GBH are probably the best of the biggest (English variety at least), passing up great band gone terrible - Discharge. Most songs are of the standard GBH speed-punk type, with a few slow ones... hell. Production is slick (too slick, really). Lets hope GBH continue to release great records like this and that Susan ~~continues~~ ^{continues} to release them to me for free!

SEX GANG CHILDREN "BEASTS" ILLUMINATED RECORDS

A collection of previously released singles. These guys were one of the original bands to go along the "graveyard" music vein. Not quite as wild as Specimen but the eery screams & droning rhythms are obviously present. A must, if you don't already own the singles.

DEAD Hippie "Living Dead" (pulse)

I don't know quite what to make of this. Don't know anything about this band, but they sound like two-week old garage band. Definitely not your average like something Tiny Tim and Linda Blair, and looks like George Romero should use this guy if he ever decides to film "Night of the Living Grateful Dead". Slickly produced, most of the tunes are worthwhile musical pieces, but c'mon, do we really need Studio Thrash? I'm undecided. The cover is real cool. MIKE

PIL "Live in Tokyo" (Virgin)

Here I am, reviewing records again. And this PIL record is an appropriate one to start with. Not that I think it's wonderful or anything, but because it sucks! What we have here is not really Public Image Limited, but a Public Image cover band! Apparently old Johnny Lydon is a tough one to get along with, and he recently lost PIL's musical side - Keith Leven. But being the clever capitalist that he is, Johnny simply found this bar band who specialize in PIL copy-tunes. And like the real pros they are, they duplicate PIL's "avant-garde" songs note-for-note. But poor old Johnny should have found a replacement for himself, since he seems to have lost whatever it was that made him so interesting. Particular bad moments are all of "Flowers of Romance" and when Johnny shouts "All together now!", trying to get a sing-along going with what sounds like an audience of a half million 14 year old Japanese girls. During the song "This is not a love song", at its big dance club hit, Johnny sings "I like my new role", but I swear it sounds just like he says "I like my new Rollton"! Just imagine it - Johnny endorsing Anti-perspirant! Strong enough for a man, but I made for Johnny Rotten!!!

MIKE

Three of a perfect pair

EG Records

I'm sorry Bob but this is a sad effort. However it is a step up from 'Beat'. For punishment you should be tied up and set between two loud speakers and forced to listen to Van Halen for two hours. King Crimson fans be warned! This is ten to it before putting up the bucks. Below tries to be an eccentric in a way that tends to deviate from the K.C. that it's devotees have thrived upon for so long. What I am trying to say is Bob should have stayed with the name 'Discipline'. This synthetic quagmire of what appears to be Bob's boredom with his Roland and Belews pretentious lyrics, with the exception of 'Model Man' I wouldnt recommend this album to even the most die-hard of Frippist's! There are no good guitar runs Bob is playing the 'I'm a humble passive guitar player' role. And it's pathetic. Belews lyrics are Elephant talk to the bone. The last song on the album 'Larks Tongues in Aspic Part III' all I can say is 'NO NO NO NO NO NO NO NO!' 'Dig Me' is a song about a car that has been put to rot in a junk yard. Who fucking cares? The line in the song 'what was deluxe becomes debris' is analogous with the bands current state. 'Industry' is a disjointed and without purpose instrumental. At least it's not as bad as 'Beat'. Bruford has become quite the impotent one. As for Levin, no blame.

Anti Matter.

VERBAL ABUSE - "Waste An American Band" (Fowl)

Here it is, the debut album from that fun-lovin' guy Nikki Sikk and his band - Verbal Abuse. It's fast and groovy and contains one of the best lines in recent memory - "You were just a waste of sperm"!! From the song "I hate You". (Is this song about someone I know?) It also contains two great cover tunes - Grand Funk's "Waste an american band" and "This Buds For you". I really like this record, even though this band did steal their drummer, and will forever rot in Hell for it!

MIKE/SKULLBONE

We Got Power-Party or Go Home - (mystic)

This is a 40 band sampler, on one record. Most tracks are real short, and if you have any favorite cuts you specifically want to hear, that's too bad, cuz there's no grooves between songs! Standouts are - Minute Men (Party with me punker), Abortionites, DayGlow Abortions, Don't Know and No Labels. Other notables are -

JFA, WhiteFlag, Fuck-ups, Big Boys, 7-seconds, Sm34 and Redd Kross. Most songs are of your exciting thrash-type variety. This is the current most happening compilation record. Guit scraggin' and got roggin'. MIKE

Big Boys' "Lullabies help the brain grow" (moment)

Yeah, I know, this was released last summer, but since I've only recently rejoined the Warming peacock, I decided to review it (me being the independent decision making type). Well, the Big Boys are just about the best group you ever could see, but since you can only hear them on this record, you're missing a lot of the fun. But then again, you've probably never seen the Big Boys before, so you don't know what you're missing, and you can't be disappointed! Wow, what a review! How many songs? you ask? Well I don't know, I don't have a copy and I'm going by memory. I think about 14. They've got Punk ones, they've got Funk ones. They've got Thrash ones, and they've got other stuff too! Skate Pluggerville and Pipeline and get rockin' with yo rockin' dad!

P.J.'s brand of "new music" is difficult to classify. He devotes his lyrical talents to describing and defining social and political dilemmas of the 1980s, ranging from the inanities of modern human courtship rituals -- to genocide. Some critics along the New Wave club circuit have compared him to Bob Dylan.

His eclectic musical styles are another matter. Critics have cited comparisons between P.J. and such groups as the Doors, the Velvet Underground and the Ventures. One Boston reviewer put P.J.'s music in a new genre -- "ragtime rock." The prestigious Music Connection of Los Angeles identifies the main influences on P.J. as ranging between Shostokovich and Manzarek. A critic in St. Louis wrote that P.J.'s style covers the breadth of music from boogie-woogie to classical to jazz. And rock.

As for performing styles, P.J.'s singing and persona at the keyboard has been characterized by invoking such names as Mark Knopfler, Lou Reed and Iggy Pop.

P.J. had 12 years of traditional classical piano education plus three years of jazz composition. He was raised in Minneapolis and later studied at California State University at Los Angeles and Northeastern University in Boston.

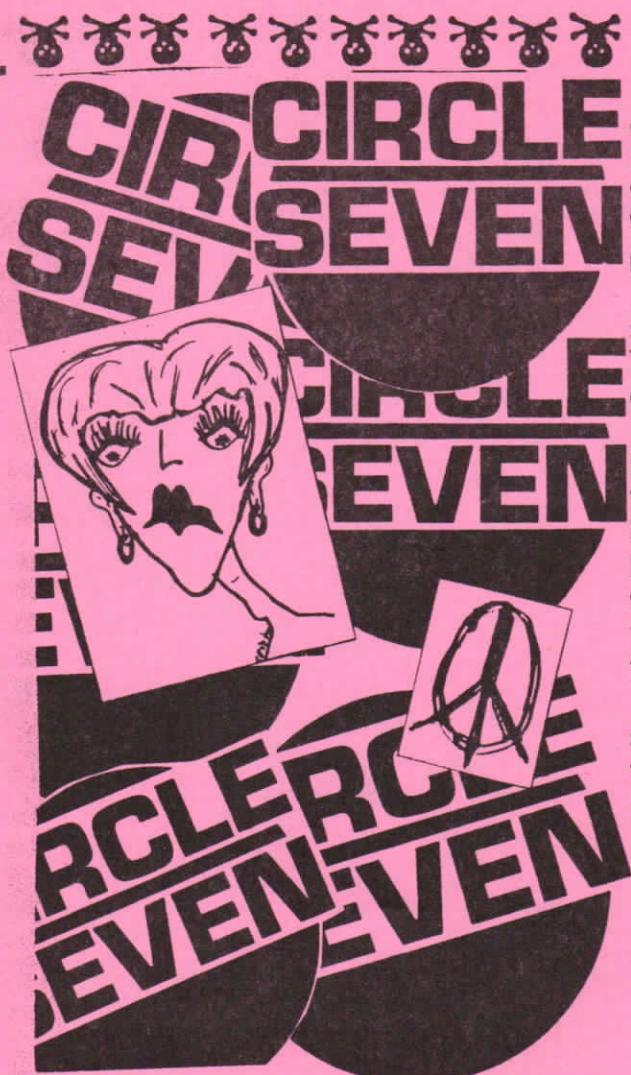

Before he formed The Terrorists, P.J. helped organize and served as the main composer and singer with The Paradox, based in Minneapolis, and later the Specimens, based in Boston.

The latter band performed with such stars and groups as The Plimsouls, Translator, Lydia Lunch, The Individuals, Johnny Thunders, The Big Boys, The Suburbs, the Violent Femmes, Burning Sensations and The Call. It toured extensively in Canada and the United States, covering 26 states including Alaska.

Among the main venues that P.J. has played are CBGB in New York, the Channel and The Rat in Boston, Tupelo's Tavern in New Orleans, Club Foot in Austin, Joe Starr's Omni in Houston, Graham Central Station in Phoenix, Madame Wong's in L.A., The Hot Klub in Dallas, Tut's in Chicago, Berkeley Square in Berkeley, East Side Club in Philadelphia and On Broadway in San Francisco.

Circle Seven is a three piece group from Seattle, Wa. composed of: Randy Pepprock, 23, guitar, vocal; Sabina Miller, 21, bass; and Danielle Elliott, 19, drums. The group was formed mid-1983 from the remains of two bands: Who Killed Society (Randy, Sabina) and Rally Go! (Danielle).

Their debut EP, "Suburban Hope," is a hard-edged six song effort which was produced by Mark H. Smith (of Three Swimmers). The EP was released Feb. 1984, and is on the Ruthless Record label.

Combining jungle rock drums with pounding, fluid bass and slashing guitar, Circle Seven truly has a sound that can be called their own. Live, Circle Seven has been described as "seeming to be engaged in a furious battle to see whose limbs will fall off first" and "delivering whopping doses of strength in spades" ("Backfire," Oct. '83). Needless to say, there is never a dull moment when they take the stage.

Circle Seven has plans to record a follow up EP this summer and possibly to relocate to Los Angeles this fall. If you are interested in more information, Circle Seven can be contacted at:

Black Flag - "My War" (SST)

This here Black Flag record is quite a mixed bag. It starts off with the tune "My War", which is very very good, then it's up and down from there on. Every song seems to be about "The pain in my Heart" (those are flat happy people!) and most last too long. Side one is the "Up Tempo" side while side two threatens to drone on into eternity. Opium den music for the severely depressed. Play side two at at least 45 speed (78 is the best!). Where's Chavo?

Killroy S-song E.P. (Ghetto Way)

This is an OK record, I guess. Not to impressive. Nothing special. Nor is it offensive. Its just there.

Meat Puppets II (SST)

Country western is not exactly my thang, and this ones country western. Its nothing like their first album. (I reviewed that one in the very first Warning). That one was real twisted thrash with singing that went something like "Arrrrrwhahrrrhg Ohharrrrheee Yaaghah". This one is country western with fairly orthodox enunciation. If you like Rank and File or have a very open mind (this is a good record) buy this, cuz I'm sure a country western band who call themselves "Meat Puppets" need all the support they can get!

Tesco VEE "Dutch Hercules Ep." (Touch & Go)

Fans of the Meatmen take note: this is the record for You! Head meat boy Tesco backed by most of Minor Threat, this apparently IS the new Meatmen. We got here heavy metal, Rap and heavy metal, what more could you want?

TERRORISTS debut E.P.
Scab Records

I've always liked the music of P.J. Letofsky. His unique sound and piano playing style has a variety of musical influences from classical to boogie-woogie to Jazz and everything in between. P.J. does things with a piano improvisationaly that can stand on its own.

P.J.'s latest debut E.P. simply titled TERRORISTS features P.J. on piano and vocals and Dave Pedersen, the drummer who toured with the Specimens when they appeared in Alaska last fall. Terrorists are a 2 piece group playing only on piano and drums plus P.J.'s Hypnotising vocals make this E.P. a fine introduction to this group. There are 4 songs on this E.P. with my faves being Lance Romance and Scatterbrain (an Early Specimens tune) pick up this record and meet the TERRORISTS.

CIRCLE SEVEN "Suburban Hope" (Ruthless Records)

This is Circle 7's debut E.P. and at times the tunes seem to be it all? The title cut "Suburban Hope", asks "Are you happy being middle class?" This is not a thrash/hardcore sounding band. They are however very musically creative with intense lyrical content, easy to listen to and easy to hear. Other cuts are titled, "Cover-up", "Say One Thing", "DISTANT", "I Woke Up" and "Look What You've Got". Circle Seven are from Seattle so watch for an interview in WARNING. I think my biggest Beef about this entire record is that it's way to short. Let's hear MORE!

This is a round up of the early years at SST Records. Included are Minutemen, Meat Puppets, Saccharine Trust, Black Flag (of Course), Overkill, Stains, Wurm and Husker Du. All tracks are previously released on singles and albums so it's all pretty redundant. "I've heard it all before".

BLASTING THE CONCEPT ANOTHER SST COMPILATION

Tubes Concert

The Tubes arrived in Anchorage Saturday, March 24th to the biggest reception ever given a rock band in Alaska. Local promoters staged a "Wild Women of Wongo" contest at the airport which drew well over a dozen contestants and hundreds of curious onlookers. Also on the scene were local press celebrites such as Wynn Richards, Joyce the Voice, and Warning's own Bill Bored. Staff members of Warning Fanzine were finally recognized as legitimate members of the press and admitted to the press conference. Actually, without the presence of Bill Bored, the conference would have been a photo session.

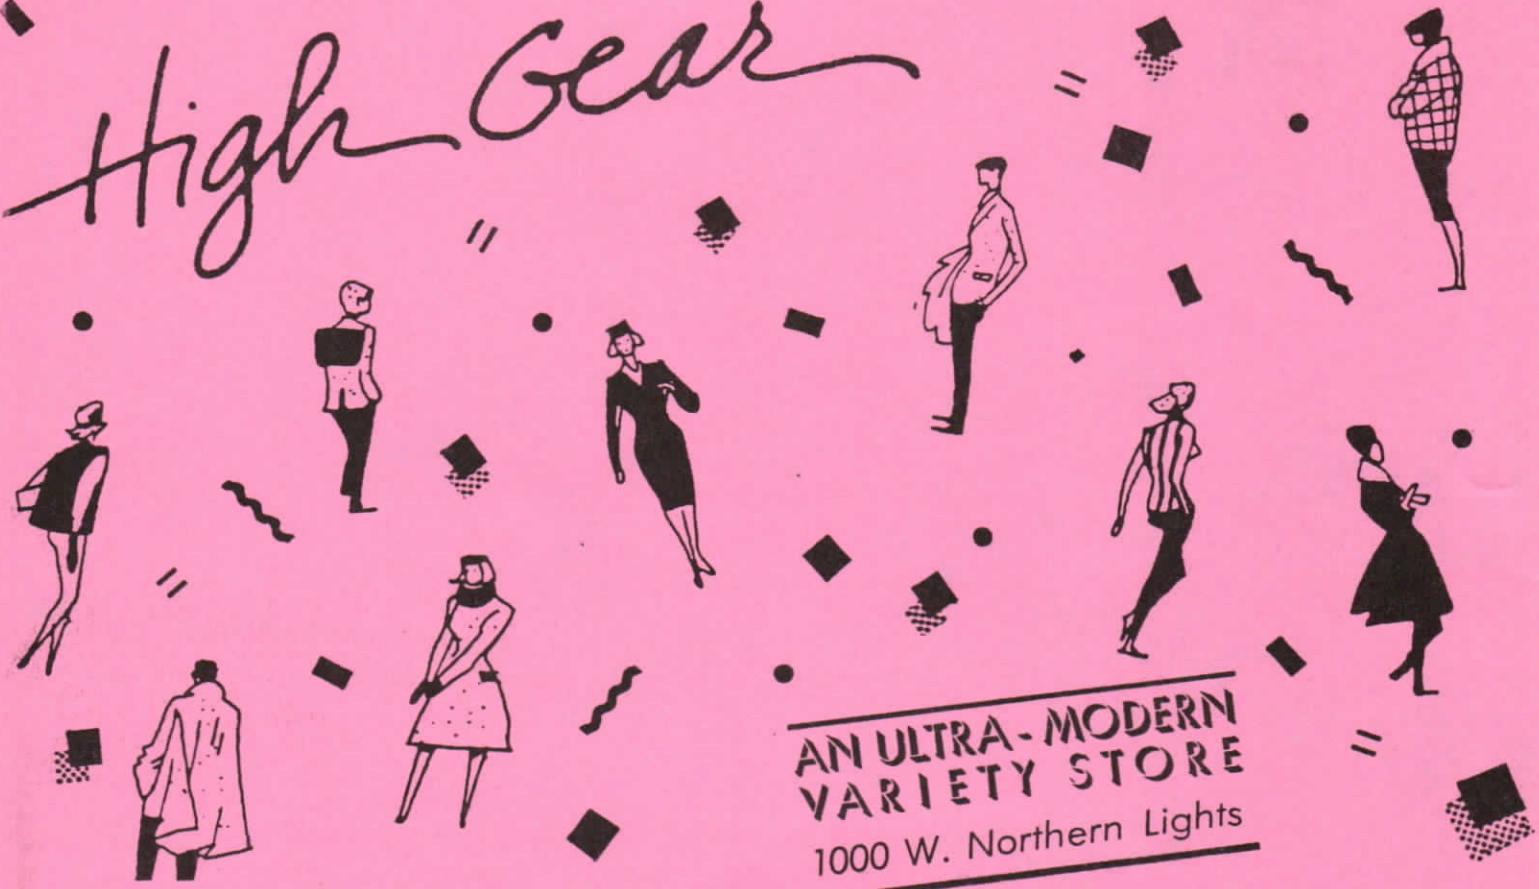

The concert itself, while it received great reviews in local papers, was basically a let down. Not only has the music of the Tubes gone more towards pop, the show has gone downhill too. Gone were the elaborate stage sets and wild theatrics of days gone by. Songwriter/guitarist/vocalist Bill 'Sputnik' Spooner while formerly the 'M.C.' style front-man has been shoved to the rear by vocalist/actor/pop-star of the group Fee Waldo Waybill. According to a good source, there is a clash of egos going on there. For those of you who missed restyles, it is rumored that she is still hot & heavy with Prairie Prince and has a solo LP.

While I said the concert was a letdown, to someone who has never seen the Tubes before or heard "Mondo Bondage", it was probably one of the better concerts yet to hit Anchorage. If the Tubes didn't knock your socks off this time either, look what's coming! Black Flag? Butthole Surfers? The Ramones?...

SNOWBOARD REPORT:

Tito Ramos-snowboarder from Anchorage

90 contestants showed up in sunny Lake Tahoe to try to dethrone the reigning champion of snowboarding, Tom Sims. There was a lot of new faces in this years contest, mainly due to poor management of last years event. Once again it proved to be a testing ground for new designs and new techniques. This new sport, once dominated by Sims was clearly taken over by younger, more aggressive riders, such as Terry Kidwell of Tahoe, Steve Link of Breckenridge, CO. and Andy Coglan of Vermont. Also outstanding at the competition was Ken Achembach of Calgary, Canada, Evan Feen of CO., and a new comer from Alaska, Tito Ramos.

Burton riders were smooth fast, welltrained and well suited in their red speed suits and precision wax jobs as they dominated the Slalom and Downhill events. Andy Coglan showed near perfect form with his tight gate runs and tuck which he is famous for. He took 1st in Downhill and Slalom and 6th in freestyle/halfpipe. Coglan is the new World Champ as well as winning the national champ just 2 weeks earlier in Vermont. Burtons Team took most of the top 15 places in Downhill and also placed high in Slalom. Sims team did well in Slalom also with Steve Link taking trophy's in all three events including 3rd in Slalom and 4th in Downhill and 5th in Halfpipe. Also riding for Sims was aerial master, Terry Kidwell performing frontside maneuvers and 360s that showed a lot of time practicing at the Tahoe City half-pipe.

Young and up coming riders for Flight, Barfoot and the new Avalanche boards placed well in the halfpipe and also showed a lot of promise for next year. Matt Danovan of Prop surprised everyone with his carving on his unconventional board both, riding both regular and goofy foot in the same run.

Everyone learned alot from the old pro's and the radical newcomers to the sport. Next year should be the best yet, with new designs in the making and new and better construction of boards coming in the 84-85 models. Be looking for the contest in alaska in 85 and hopefully more places to ride.
